Children First Conference Official

Call for Proposals

"Healthy Families. Healthy Communities"

The Early Learning Coalition in partnership with the Florida Association for Infant Mental Health invites you to submit a proposal for our Children First Conference

"Healthy Families. Healthy Communities"

The Early Learning Coalition's Children First Conference is the premier professional development opportunity for educational consultants, teachers, directors, coaches, researchers, program administrators, and all those who focus on quality improvement in early care and education.

This year's theme, "Healthy Families. Healthy Communities," will focus on best practice models in enhancing the physical, social, emotional, and cognitive growth of children birth to five.
