III. Chairman's Report

Matthew Bruno

M. Bruno reported that Evelio Torres has been named the 2023 David Lawrence Jr. Champion for Children Award honoree. Your impact on children and families, colleagues and staff are immeasurable. This year's ceremony will be held Thursday April 27, 2023.

Mission: To promote high-quality school readiness, voluntary pre-kindergarten and after school programs, thus increasing all children's chances of achieving future educational success and becoming productive members of society. The Coalition seeks to further the physical, social, emotional and intellectual needs of Miami-Dade and Monroe County children with a priority toward the ages before birth through age 5.

M. Bruno reported that we have 3 board members listed on the South Florida Power 100 as reported by CityandStateFlorida.com:

75. Loreen Chant

President and CEO, Health Foundation of South Florida

Since becoming the first woman to lead the Health Foundation of South Florida in 2021, Loreen Chant has overseen $4 million in annual grantmaking. She recently announced partnerships with five South Florida collaboratives to reduce health inequities, along with a $1 million investment to address the region's health labor shortage. She also hosted the foundation's inaugural Black Health Summit. Ms. Chant previously headed Easterseals South Florida and spent two decades guiding expansion at Johnson & Wales University's North Miami campus, where she left as president.

79. Alfred Sanchez

President and CEO, Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce

After decades of involvement with the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, Alfred Sanchez took over as CEO in 2016, guiding nearly a half-million member-company employees through a period of explosive regional growth. Under his leadership, the Chamber has bolstered Miami-Dade businesses through the pandemic through grants and loan initiatives, small business mentorships, and layoff prevention in collaboration with CareerSource Florida. Sanchez previously headed the American Red Cross of South Florida, the Miami YMCA and the American Red Cross of Greater Miami and the Keys.

97. Rick Beasley

Executive Director, South Florida Workforce Investment Board

Greater Miami's burgeoning economy owes a debt to Rick Beasley, who since 2005 has headed the South Florida Workforce Investment Board. Working closely with state policymakers, Beasley administers a $75 million operating budget that funds employment programs throughout Miami-Dade and Monroe counties, including career education oriented toward the region's booming tech scene. With Beasley's guidance, the SFWIB recently launched mobile workforce assistance centers and created an employed worker training program.

IV. Chairman's Distinguished Service Award

Matthew Bruno

M. Bruno presented Loreen Chant with the Chairman's Distinguished Service Award. Mrs. Chant is the Finance Committee Chair, a member of the Executive Committee and also Chairs the Strategic Planning Committee. I could not be more appreciative of Loreen's service to this board and the children and families of our community. She dedicates countless hours to this organization on committee work, by working in partnership and in support of staff and our mission. M. Bruno stated that we could not ask for a more dedicated Finance Committee chair who serves with distinction and excellence and who is always willing to do whatever it takes to support the organization's mission.

V. Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce Fly-in Update

Matthew D. Monica

Matthew D. Monica, Vice President of Community affairs presented valuable information relating to Legislative action and the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce Fly-in activities.
