

Questions and Answers

RFQ #2019-83 Website Maintenance&Tech Support

Please be advised all questions are keyed as submitted.

1. What is overall Project budget for the website maintenance?
Up to $50,000
2. Who has developed the current web application -
<http://trainings.elcmdm.org/Default.aspx>?
Nexsoftware
3. Is the company that developed this website eligible to bid on this opportunity? What was the project cost?
Yes, $32,000
4. What has been the annual spend for website maintenance during the past three financial years?
$32,000
5. Will the Agency provide with a development or test environment to verify the changes implemented?
Determined, based on internal controls
6. Can the Agency provide us details of the proposal format and any specific instructions?
All instructions available are listed in the RFQ
7. Could you please provide us the complete technology stack/environment used for this web application?

We the 'ELC' will need to ask permission of the current vendor for this information. While this information is known, the ELC is not at liberty to provide it without the consent of the current programmers.

8. Does this opportunity contain Local Preference? If yes, please provide the details
No, preference noted

9. Could the agency provide more information on the evaluation criteria? What does the Agency mean by "Does the vendor have relative experience in the market?"

All available evaluation criteria is noticed in the RFQ. Experience would include prior development of learning management system, or e-learning platforms.